JAMES SUCKLING

92/100

"Very bright and fresh berry-pastry and some toasty and nutty nuances, too. The palate has plush and rich dark fruit that carries well on the finish."

WINE ENTHUSIAST

90/100

"This richly structured wine offers red-berry flavors and acidity. The dry core balances the generous fruits. This balanced wine is ready to drink."

Morgon La Chanaise 2017

« Exceptional value » - Wine Spectator - November 2019

JAMES SUCKLING

92/100

"An elegant Morgon that's cool and delicate, in spite of having some tannic power. I love the cool, red-cherry nose and the long, dry finish. Better from 2020."

"Ripe raspberry and cherry notes are marked by stony mineral, floral and licorice details in this charming, light-bodied red, with elements of orange zest, tea and spice lingering into the long finish. Light tannins. Drink now though 2024."

"This ripe, light-to medium-bodied red sports layers of pure balckberry , cassis and damson plum, edged with licorice, floral and apricot details. Tangy, mouthwatering acidity highlight the mineral and spice details on the long, lightly grippy finish. Drink now through 2020. "

WINE ENTHUSIAST

92/100

"This is a rich, full wine, given structure both by wood aging and fruit tannins. Weight, density and good acidity are coming together in an harmonious whole. From 60 year-old vines, it will be ready from late 2018."

Wine Spectator

90/100

"Macerated cherry and raspberry tea flavors are accented by licorice, mineral and white pepper details in this light-bodied red, with solid, integrated acidity that accentuates the incense and herb notes on the finish. Drink now through 2023."

JAMES SUCKLING

93/100

"Beautifully attractive violets and red flowers here, carrying a very fresh impression, as well as an exciting and vibrant yet elegant finish. Exceptionally pure and focused. Drink or hold."
